

César E. Chávez Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies

Graduate Studies Program

TEACHING FELLOWSHIP 2017-2018

APPLICATION FORM

The Graduate Studies Program of the César E. Chávez Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies offers Teaching Fellowships opportunities to Doctoral graduate students who have advanced to candidacy. Teaching Fellowships are available for Doctoral graduate students to teach during the coming summer 2017 and the academic year 2017-18. Teaching Fellowships are paid opportunities for graduate students to refine their teaching skillset in a seminar class environment. Teaching Fellowships are awarded through an application review process and the numbers of available Teaching Fellowship are based on the curricular needs of the César E. Chávez Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS IS FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 2017

(One Course Proposal Per Application Submission, Multiple Applications Can Be Submitted)

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Student ID: _____ Email: _____

Faculty Advisor: _____

Thesis topic: _____

Proposed course# and title: _____

Available to teach: ___ summer ___ fall ___ winter ___ spring

Previous TA experience (list course and professor):

Other teaching experience:

- SUBMIT
- a) this completed application
 - b) cover letter describing your qualifications for the position
 - c) curriculum vitae
 - d) proposed course description and syllabus
 - e) faculty advisor letter of recommendation

Submit hard copies to: Ellie Hernandez, 7351 Bunche Hall

If you have questions, contact studentadvisor@chavez.ucla.edu

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 2017

Decisions will be announced in April.

(Below Department use only)

_____ date _____
Ellie Hernandez, Student Advisor, Graduate Program

_____ date _____
Otto Santa Ana, Vice Chair, Graduate Program Director

_____ date _____
Eric Avila, Department Chair